

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA

Darla Moore School of Business
Sonoco International Business Department

Assistant/Associate/Full Professor of International Business

The Sonoco International Business Department, Darla Moore School of Business, University of South Carolina is seeking candidates for two tenure track positions at the rank of Assistant, Associate or Full Professor, or a Tenured appointment at the rank of Associate or Full Professor in the area of International Business, to begin August, 2016.

Excellence in research and teaching are the primary criteria for this position. Applicants must demonstrate potential for publication of international business research in top academic outlets. A strong disciplinary foundation is important, particularly as applied to understanding international business phenomena at the subunit, firm or institutional level. Demonstrated ability to successfully teach at the undergraduate and/or graduate level is also important. A country or regional expertise is desirable.

The primary vision for the Sonoco International Business Department is to take a leading role in the development of high impact theory and research on global business. The department is unified by its interest in understanding the multinational enterprise and the institutional context within which it is embedded. The department includes faculty with diverse disciplinary backgrounds. The department faculty include: Kendall Roth (Chair), Tatiana Kostova, Chuck Kwok, Hildy Teegen, Rob Rolfe, Gerald McDermott, Omrane Guedhami, Andrew Spicer, Nancy Buchan, Sali Li, Lite Nartey, Michael Murphree, Ken Erickson, Alice Leri, Frank Rydzewski, and Dan Ostergaard. All courses taught by the department are international in content.

The Department offers an undergraduate international business major that has been ranked #1 for 17 consecutive years and collaborative undergraduate international programs with Chinese University of Hong Kong, Universidad de Chile (FEN), Paris Dauphine University, American University in Cairo, and an undergraduate education alliance with ESSEC, University of Mannheim, and FGV-EBAPE. Our flagship International MBA has been ranked in the top 1 or 2 international business programs in the country in the last 25 years. A recently introduced Master in International Business program offers dual degrees with other prominent universities including Bocconi (Italy), ESCP-Paris (France), University of Mannheim (Germany), Shanghai Jiao Tong (China), Higher School of Economics (Russia), and Koc University (Turkey). The Department has a vibrant Ph.D. program currently counting 15 students.

For full consideration, applications including cover letter, CV, three letters of recommendation, and representative research papers or publications should be submitted by October 15, 2015. Review of applications will begin as soon as received and will continue until the position is filled. Please send your materials to Beth Busby (beth.busby@moore.sc.edu), Sonoco International Business Department, Darla Moore School of Business, University of South Carolina, 1014 Greene Street, Columbia, SC 29208.

The University of South Carolina does not discriminate in educational or employment opportunities or decisions for qualified persons on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, sexual orientation, or veteran status. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.