

Introduction

North Macedonia is a small, landlocked country located in the central Balkan Peninsula in Southeastern Europe. It borders Albania, Bulgaria, Greece, Kosovo, and Serbia.

North Macedonia is a major transportation corridor from Western and Central Europe to the Aegean Sea and Southern Europe to Western Europe. The government system is a parliamentary republic; the chief of state is the president, and the head of government is the prime minister. North Macedonia has a small, open economy that is vulnerable to economic developments in Europe and dependent on regional integration for continued economic growth. North Macedonia is a member of the Central European Free Trade Agreement (CEFTA) and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO).

Risk Assessment (Provided by Coface)

Country rating: C - A very uncertain political and economic outlook and a business environment with many troublesome weaknesses can have a significant impact on corporate payment behavior. Corporate default probability is high.

Business Climate rating: A4 - The business environment is acceptable. Corporate financial information is sometimes neither readily available nor sufficiently reliable. Debt collection is not always efficient and the institutional framework has shortcomings. Intercompany transactions may thus run into appreciable difficulties in the acceptable but occasionally unstable environments rated A4.

Strengths

- Association and Stabilization Agreement with the EU, candidate for accession since 2003
- Integrated into the European manufacturing chain
- Close to factories in central Europe and at the meeting point of two European corridors
- Wage competitiveness
- Support from European donors
- High levels of remittances from expatriate workers (13.7% of GDP)
- Denar pegged to the euro

Weaknesses

- Low employment rate (48%), high structural unemployment and lack of productivity due to inadequate training
- Large informal economy due to inefficient government and cumbersome regulation
- Sustained emigration to the EU of young people, who face a 37.2% unemployment rate
- High level of euroisation (36.7% of bank deposits and 41.4% of credit)
- Inadequate transport, energy, health and education infrastructure
- Polarised political landscape
- Tensions between Slavic majority and Albanian minority
- Lengthy EU accession negotiations in prospect, due to insufficient progress in efforts to fight corruption and organized crime and strengthen the rule of law
