

BUSINESS, ECONOMICS AND PUBLIC POLICY

The Ivey Business School seeks candidates for probationary (tenure-track) and/or tenured faculty positions in the area of Business, Economics and Public Policy at the ranks of Assistant Professor, Associate Professor or Professor. Limited Term or Visiting appointments at the rank of Lecturer, Assistant, Associate, or Professor will also be considered. The positions are available to begin in July 2014.

Applicants for a probationary (tenure-track) or tenured appointment are expected to hold a doctorate degree or be close to completion. Candidates from disciplines including strategy, economics and political science will be considered. They will contribute to the group's research focus and publish in the highest quality academic and practitioner outlets. While all qualified candidates are encouraged to apply, those with research interests in the interaction between firms and their external institutional environment will be given priority, as will those with research interests aligned with the School's research Centres and Institutes (www.ivey.uwo.ca/faculty/centres). Candidates should also have the ability to successfully teach in core undergraduate and/or MBA courses using a case / discussion format. The teaching focus of the group includes managerial economics, public policy, international business and nonmarket strategy. Links to practice through consulting and/or past work experience are an advantage.

Applicants for a Limited Term appointment are expected to have significant teaching experience at the university level. Qualified candidates without a doctorate will have the rank of Lecturer. An ability to teach MBA and EMBA courses using a case / discussion format is highly desirable. The ideal candidate will have developed and delivered specialized elective courses. Visiting appointments will also be considered.

The Ivey Business School is Canada's premier business school and is recognized worldwide for the quality of its management education and research. The School's major activities include: a highly regarded MBA program and a unique undergraduate program; an established doctoral program active in most major areas of management; and an expanding portfolio of programs for executives, including an Executive MBA delivered in Canada and Hong Kong. The School is internationally oriented in terms of curricula, research, faculty, and student exchanges.

The positions are subject to budget approval. Applicants should have fluent written and oral communication skills in English. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority. The Ivey Business School and Western University are committed to employment equity and welcome applications from all qualified women and men, including visible minorities, aboriginal people and persons with disabilities.

The submission deadline is October 20, 2013 although applications will be accepted until the position has been filled. Ivey faculty will be available to meet with prospective candidates at the Academy of Management meeting in Orlando. Interested candidates who would like to set up meetings in Orlando should send their CV, dissertation abstract, and any papers to Laura DiRisio at ldirisio@ivey.ca by August 1.

Applications should be submitted to: facultypositions@ivey.ca. For additional information on how to apply, please visit our website at www.ivey.uwo.ca/faculty/Career_Opps.htm. Applicants should also complete the following form and include it in the application packet:
