

ASSISTANT OR ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR FACULTY POSITION IN HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT
School of Human Resources & Labor Relations
College of Social Science
Michigan State University

The School of Human Resources & Labor Relations in the College of Social Science at Michigan State University seeks applicants for a full-time tenure system position at the Assistant or Associate Professor level in Human Resource Management. This position is an academic-year (nine-month) appointment with a beginning date of August 15, 2017.

We are particularly interested in applicants with research and teaching interests in macro HRM, international HRM, organizational development and applied research methods. Instructional responsibilities include teaching in our signature Master of Human Resources & Labor Relations program, our doctoral program and at the undergraduate level.

We seek applicants with demonstrated records of research and scholarship excellence and demonstrated records (or strong potential for success) in obtaining external funding to support one's research agenda. Applicants must have completed a Ph.D. in a relevant field such as human resource management or other related fields and disciplines prior to the beginning date.

Special instructions to applicants:

Applicants should complete an application and provide a cover letter outlining research and teaching interests, curriculum vitae and writing samples. To view the posting and apply for the position go to <https://jobs.msu.edu> and search on the "Faculty/Academic Staff" tab. Then go to posting #3643.

The review of applications will begin September 1st, 2016. However, applications will continue to be considered until this position is filled. We will begin initial interviewing of selected applicants via Skype approximately 3 weeks later. Finalists will be invited to interview on campus.

If you have questions about the process for applying on line you should contact Annette Bacon at bacona@msu.edu, or by calling her at 517-355-1801. If you have other inquiries about the position (not related to the process of applying online), you may contact the Search Committee Chair, Mark V. Roehling, at roehling@msu.edu. However, please note, if you wish to formally apply for the position the application and supporting materials must be submitted using the University's online application system, identified above.

The School of Human Resources & Labor Relations strongly encourages applications from women, persons of color, ethnic minorities, veterans, and persons with disabilities. To find out more about the School, visit our website: www.hrlr.msu.edu
