The Business Department at Universitat Autònoma Barcelona invites applications for full time positions for junior level candidates in accounting-finance, operations research-production management/ information systems, managerial/business economics, finance, and management (including HR, OB, Strategy, Entrepreneurship, IB). The positions will be effective in September 2015 and continue over three years with the possibility of being extended over other five years, subject to budget, annual reviews and formal accreditations in the Spanish/Catalan academic requirements system. There are no administrative responsibilities, but the newly recruited academics are expected to teach at the undergraduate/graduate level and contribute to the department through research. However, the teaching load will be conveniently reduced (English, Spanish and/or Catalan courses are available).

The Business Department has active teaching and research groups in the above-mentioned areas with 150 employees. It is located in the Faculty of Economics and Business. According to the QS Ranking 2014 the Universitat Autònoma Barcelona is in position 106 with regard to academic reputation and leader in number of citations per researcher, among Spanish universities. In the 2014 edition, the UAB ranks 10th worldwide among the top 50 universities founded less than 50 years ago, second in Europe and first in Spain. The University was founded in 1968. It currently enrolls about 40,000 students and 3,500 academics (teaching and research staff) and is located at 20 km. from the city of Barcelona with excellent public transport facilities.

Qualifications: The candidate must have a PhD. in Accounting-Finance, Management, Operations Management, Business Economics or a related field from a reputable university received before September 2015. He/she must demonstrate a strong commitment to scholarly research and potential for high-quality research with reasonable publications in international refereed journals or expectations for potential future publications. Flexibility to join and collaborate with the research in progress in the department will be important. The candidates are also expected to actively engage in research seminars and similar activities at the Department. As regards teaching, demonstrated teaching competences in the related fields of the position are also required. The candidate should have good communication skills in English (applicants must be fluent but not necessarily native speakers) and familiarity with a technologically infused academic environment.

Contact and Application procedure: Interested candidates should send an e-mail including the following attachments:

- Cover letter or statement of research interests
- Curriculum Vitae
- Job market paper
- Two letters of reference

The full application has to be electronically sent to the following e-mail address: d.empresa@uab.cat. Please specify REF ACC-FIN, REF OR-PM, REF MAN-ECO, REF. MARK or REF: MAN. in your application. Deadline for the application is on Nov., 28th, 2014. Short listed candidates will be contacted and invited for an interview-job seminar which will take place between January and February, 2015.
