

Introduction

Gabon is a country located in Western Africa bordering Equatorial Guinea, Cameroon, Republic of the Congo, the Gulf of Guinea, and the Atlantic Ocean. Gabon has an extensive system of rainforests and savannas in the east and south. The government system is a republic with a multiparty presidential republic; the chief of state is the president, and the head of government is the prime minister. Gabon has a mixed economic system with a heavy reliance on oil, combined with relatively weak centralized economic planning and government regulation. Gabon is a member of the Economic Community of Central African States (ECCAS).

Risk Assessment (Provided by Coface)

Country rating: C - A very uncertain political and economic outlook and a business environment with many troublesome weaknesses can have a significant impact on corporate payment behavior. Corporate default probability is high.

Business Climate rating: D - The business environment is very difficult. Corporate financial information is rarely available and when available usually unreliable. The legal system makes debt collection very unpredictable. The institutional framework has very serious weaknesses. Intercompany transactions can thus be very difficult to manage in the highly risky environments rated D.

Strengths

- Abundant natural resources: fourth-largest oil producer in sub-Saharan Africa (2020), second-largest manganese producer in the world (2022) and one of the continent's largest producers of tropical wood
- Under-exploited mining potential: deposits of iron, gold, uranium, diamond, copper, zinc, rare-earth metals, etc.
- Drive to diversify the economy as part of the Emerging Gabon Strategic Plan 2010-2025
- Hydroelectric potential
- Member of the CEMAC and the Commonwealth

Weaknesses

- Economy heavily dependent on the oil sector
- High cost of production factors linked to inadequate infrastructure (transport and electricity)
- Dependent on imports of food and capital goods
- High unemployment, endemic poverty, poor wealth distribution, informal economy (estimated at between 40% and 50% of GDP)
- Widespread corruption
- Stock of domestic and external arrears not yet cleared
