

Introduction

Georgia is situated at the crossroads of Eastern Europe and Western Asia. It is bordered by Armenia, Azerbaijan, Russia, Turkey, and the Black Sea. Strategically located directly east of the Black Sea, Georgia is largely mountainous and controls much of the Caucasus Mountains and the routes through them. The government system is a republic; the chief of state is the president, and the head of government is the prime minister. Georgia has a mixed economic system which includes a variety of private freedom, combined with centralized economic planning and government regulation.

Risk Assessment (Provided by Coface)

Country rating: B - Political and economic uncertainties and an occasionally difficult business environment can affect corporate payment behavior. Corporate default probability is appreciable.

Business Climate rating: A3 - The business environment is relatively good. Although not always available, corporate financial information is usually reliable. Debt collection and the institutional framework may have some shortcomings. Intercompany transactions may run into occasional difficulties in the otherwise secure environments rated A3.

Strengths

- Tourism, agricultural, mineral and hydroelectric potential (near self-sufficiency in electricity)
- Strategic geographical position between Central Asia, Russia, Europe and Turkey
- International support, numerous trade agreements
- Relatively solid business environment
- Candidate for EU membership since December 2023

Weaknesses

- Weak economic diversification, low manufacturing activity (9.5% of GDP in 2023) and low agricultural productivity (6.9% of GDP in 2023)
- Structural trade deficit, low value-added exports and dependence on Russian oil
- Highly dollarised banking system (48.5% of deposits and 44.2% of credits in July 2024)
- High poverty, informal economy and rural population
- Political instability: pro-Western/pro-Russian division, Abkhazia and South Ossetia occupied by Russian military forces
- The passing of the law on foreign agents and the authoritarian drift of the Georgian Dream (RG-GD), the party in power are jeopardising accession to the EU.
