

Introduction

Switzerland is a landlocked country in Central Europe. Neighboring countries include Austria, France, Italy, Liechtenstein, and Germany. The geography of Switzerland is mostly mountains (Alps in the south, Jura in the northwest) with a central plateau of rolling hills, plains, and large lakes. The government system is formally a confederation but similar in structure to a federal republic; the president is the chief of state and head of government. Switzerland has a modern market economy in which the prices of goods and services are determined in a free price system. Switzerland is a member of the European Free Trade Association (EFTA).

Risk Assessment (Provided by Coface)

Country rating: A3 - Changes in generally good but somewhat volatile political and economic environment can affect corporate payment behavior. A basically secure business environment can nonetheless give rise to occasional difficulties for companies. Corporate default probability is quite acceptable on average.

Business Climate rating: A1 - The business environment is very good. Corporate financial information is available and reliable. Debt collection is efficient. Institutional quality is very good. Intercompany transactions run smoothly in environments rated A1.

Strengths

- Very favourable business climate
- Very diversified economy, specialised in high-tech products (automotive, aviation, telecommunications, nuclear power)
- Solid public and external accounts, low public debt
- High standard of living
- Positive demographical development due to immigration

Weaknesses

- Highly dependent on global demand (exports of goods and services equals 53% of GDP in 2022)
- Tensions on the real estate market due to elevated debt levels and sizeable overvaluation relative to incomes and rents
- Substantial household debt (83.4% of GDP in Q3 2023)
