

Introduction

Ukraine is a country located in Eastern Europe bordering the Black Sea and the Sea of Azov. Neighboring countries include Belarus, Hungary, Moldova, Poland, Romania, Russia, and Slovakia. Most of Ukraine consists of fertile plains and plateaus, the Carpathian Mountains in the west, and the Crimean Peninsula in the extreme south.

The government system is a republic; the chief of state is the president, and the head of government is the prime minister. Ukraine has a mixed economic system in which there is a limited private freedom, combined with centralized economic planning and government regulation.

Risk Assessment (Provided by Coface)

Country rating: D - A high-risk political and economic situation and an often very difficult business environment can have a very significant impact on corporate payment behavior. Corporate default probability is very high.

Business Climate rating: C - The business environment is difficult. Corporate financial information is often unavailable and when available often unreliable. Debt collection is unpredictable. The institutional framework has many troublesome weaknesses. Intercompany transactions run major risks in the difficult environments rated C.

Strengths

- Strategic position in Europe
- Association and Free Trade Agreement with the European Union (2016), enabling a reorientation of foreign trade
- Significant potential in agriculture, with 55% of arable land (wheat, maize, barley, rapeseed, sunflower, beet, soybeans), and in metallurgy (iron)
- Skilled and low-cost labor force
- Low private debt levels
- International financial and political support, although conditional on reforms

Weaknesses

- Conflict with Russia and Russian-speaking populations in the Donbas region, affecting territorial integrity and preventing EU entry
- Business environment marred by corruption (notably in the justice system), oligarchy and monopolies, weak property rights, a lack of competition, and inefficient public services
- Low economic diversification, sensitivity to weather and commodity prices
- Declining demographics, regional inequalities featuring poverty, and the informal sector
- Credit constrained by doubtful loans and high real interest rates
- Managed float of the hryvnia, continued restrictions on capital movements
